

News Update

September 2011

MO HealthNet Ultrasound Policy

Effective for dates of service September 1, 2011 and after, ultrasound procedures will no longer require authorization through the Radiology Benefit Management (RBM) program administered through ACS and MedSolutions Inc. High-Tech, nuclear cardiac, and expanded cardiac imaging will continue to require authorization through the RBM program. An updated list of procedures requiring authorization will be available at:

http://www.medsolutions.com/implementation/mo_health/index.html [3].